

Income-Based Health Disparities in Yellowstone County

Access to Healthcare

7.3% of mid/high-income
18.7% of low-income

Low-income residents are more than twice as likely than mid/high income residents to have used a hospital emergency room more than once in the past year.

Mental Health

Over 54% of low-income adults have experienced symptoms of chronic depression.

- This figure currently sits at 31% for mid/high income households.

31.4% of mid/high-income
54.3% of low-income

Substance Abuse

46.2% of mid/high income residents report being negatively impacted by substance abuse, either their own or someone else's.

- This figure sits at 41.4% for low-income residents.

Nutrition, Physical Activity, & Weight

52.5% of low-income residents encounter difficulties when buying affordable fresh produce.

- This figure sits at 18% for mid/high income households.

Expanded Disparities by Income for Yellowstone County

In the 2022 Yellowstone County CHNA, "Low Income" refers to community members living in households where the total annual household income is less than or equal to 200% of the federal poverty threshold. "Mid/High Income" refers to households living on incomes which are twice (200%) or more of the federal poverty level.